Online Self Storage, Inc. New Executive Hire

Online Self Storage, Inc. announces the hiring of Alex Malkoon as V.P. Operations

Online Self Storage, Inc. is happy to announce the hiring of Alex Malkoon as Vice President of Operations. Mr. Malkoon will focus on call center operations for Call MAXimizer, the call center service provided by Online Self Storage to self storage facilities around the world.

Mr. Malkoon has extensive call center management and operations experience and is a proven leader with over 15 years of successful senior level management experience. Most recently Mr. Malkoon served as VP of Sales & Service for Public Storage responsible for the operations of the outbound telesales team and national commercial accounts. Previous to Public Storage Mr. Malkoon was Director of the National Sales and Service Operations Center for Shurgard Storage supporting domestic and international operations.

Mr. Malkoon also has call center management experience with Homestore.com, MCI-WorldCom and several independent call centers. "We are very excited to welcome Alex as a member for the Online Self Storage management team and family" said Rick McGee, President of Online Self Storage, Inc. "Alex brings a wealth of call center management experience and knowledge to Call MAXimizer. We are confident that the addition of Mr. Malkoon to the Call MAXimizer team will further position Call MAXimizer as the premier call center in the self storage market."

Mr. Malkoon will use his extensive management and call center experience to strengthen the internal operations of Call MAXimizer and position Call MAXimizer for continued growth.
